

CITY ITEMS.

CORRECTION.—In our cattle report on Thursday morning, a lot of cattle belonging to Messrs. Adam & Pearce are represented as having been sold at an average of 8 cents per pound, while nine extras are reported as having sold at 9½ cents. This is a mistake, as the extras were sold for 8½ cents per pound, while the lot averaged but 6½ cents. The nine extras were a private lot, and below is their weights on leaving home:

1 steer.....	1,535 lb	1 steer.....	1,770 lb
1 heifer.....	1,371 lb	1 steer.....	1,416 lb
1 heifer.....	1,320 lb	1 steer.....	1,335 lb
1 heifer.....	1,360 lb	1 steer.....	1,665 lb
1 steer.....	1,561 lb

The four heifers were raised by Mr. J. T. Reynolds of Erie County, Ohio, and have taken the first premium at the Ohio State Fair whenever exhibited. The nine were sold here at an average of $60 per head, which was allowing one-half their weight for shrinkage, being much more than the usual allowance.

MILITARY.—The Washington Artillerists of Pottsville, Pa., under escort of a detachment of the Seventy-first Regiment, commanded by Major Tompkins, marched from their quarters, at the Astor House, yesterday morning, to the Park, where they were reviewed by Mayor Tiemann. After the review the Artillerists were escorted down Broadway to the wharf of the Camden and Amboy Railroad Company, where they embarked on a steamboat and started for home via Philadelphia, amid the loud cheers of their New-York brethren in arms.

The Independence Guard, under command of Capt. Boyle, contemplate visiting Philadelphia on Monday next. They will be accompanied by the Navy-Yard band, and will muster 60 markets.

NEW FERRY ARRANGEMENTS TO STATEN ISLAND.—The boats of the New-Jersey Railroad and Transportation Company now touch at all points on the north side of the island, heretofore only connected with this city by the Staten Island and New-York Ferry Company, making several trips a day, and landing at the foot of Day street on this side. The Staten Island and New-York Company announce that they will place on their line a Saturday night boat, which, leaving Port Richmond at 7 p. m., will make the several landings between that place and Stapleton, thence to this city, touching at Quarantine, and returning at 12 o'clock. Upon occasions of very stormy weather this trip will not be made.

WASHINGTON RESIGNING HIS COMMAND.—A painting of Washington resigning his command of the American army, at Annapolis, in December, 1783, done by Mr. Edwin White for the State of Maryland, is on exhibition at No. 768 Broadway. The scene is the Hall of Congress, which is filled with ladies, members, general officers, and public functionaries of the State of Maryland, and the moment that when Washington, in closing this "last solemn act of my official life," "commends the interests of our dearest country to the protection of Almighty God." Among the portraits, beside that of Washington, are noticed those of Cola Walker and Humphreys, his aids, Thos. Miffin, President, and Chas. Thomson, Secretary of Congress, Jefferson, Madison, Monroe, Hamilton, Elbridge Gerry, Joshua Barry, Gen. St. Clair, Col. Howard, Mrs. Washington and niece, and Charles Carroll and two daughters.

A NEW CHURCH.—The Rev. Dr. Armitage's Church has just secured five lots, on the corner of Fifth avenue and Forty-sixth street, for their new edifice. Their property in Norfolk street has been offered for sale, and the new building is to be commenced without delay. It is to be a large and commodious edifice, capable of seating about 2,000 persons.

THE GREAT REPUBLIC.—The celebrated clipper-ship Great Republic, which, during the Summer, has been lying idle at the Wall street Ferry Pier, on the Brooklyn side, is announced to sail for San Francisco during the ensuing month, under charter of John J. Earle & Co., of No. 106 Wall street.

SECURED SEATS.—Joseph Seagrist was arrested yesterday, charged with having altered and sold tickets of admission for Stuart's Winter Garden. The tickets were genuine ones, issued for the evening of Oct. 1, but had been altered to Oct. 4, and purposed to be good for six reserved seats. They were sold in front of the theater, and on being presented at the door were detected as having been altered. Justice Quackenbush held the accused for examination. Seagrist has been in the habit of selling genuine tickets to the performances at the theater, and the altered ones appear to have been a portion of his stock which he has been unable to sell on the evening for which they were issued.

THE FULTON BANK EMBEZZLEMENT CASE.—The examination in the case of Wm. J. Lane, jr., the defaulting clerk of the Fulton Bank, was concluded yesterday before Justice Osborn at the Tombs. James T. Brady and Robert D. Holmes acted as counsel for young Lane, and Mr. Burnell appeared on the part of the Bank. The affidavits in the case have been made more explicit; and it was stated by the counsel that the Bank intended to prosecute for forgery in the third degree, by virtue of the thirty-fifth section of the Revised Statutes. After some discussion between counsel in reference to the exact meaning of the section referred to, it was resolved to submit the case on the evidence already presented. Justice Osborn desired time to consider the matter before rendering his decision, and accordingly the case was adjourned until he shall have time to more thoroughly examine the papers submitted.

SEDUCING EMIGRANT GIRLS.—Information was given by Mrs. Ann Duffy of Boston, at the Mayor's Office yesterday, to the effect that a niece named Isabella Louisa Regman, 16 years of age, had arrived in this city from Liverpool, by the ship Emerald Isle, on Friday, and had been taken away from Castle Garden to some unknown place by Samuel Lewis, the colored cook of the vessel. Mrs. Duffy desired that her whereabouts might be discovered. Two experienced officers of the Twenty-sixth Precinct were put on the track of the cook, and succeeded in finding the girl at a low negro dance house kept by T. Sewell, at No. 57 Worth street. They learned also that another girl had accompanied Miss Regman to this place, and subsequently left for another. Miss Regman and the gay colored gentleman were brought before his Honor the Mayor, and questioned in regard to their peculiar conduct. It appeared that Lewis, the cook, who is more than ordinarily good looking for a colored man, managed to gain the affections of the young girl on the voyage hitherward, and, under the promise to marry her, took her to the above den—a business in which he is said to have long been engaged, and for which he is paid by the proprietors.

The cook was sent to the Tombs for examination on the charge of abduction, and the girl was detained as a witness.

There are too many of these pimples on the pocket ships among the sailors and petty officers, by whose agency the dens of Water, Cherry, Oak and Baxter streets are constantly recruited. The poor girls are debauched on shipboard by sailors and subordinate officers, and arrive here covered with shame, knowing not where to go, and fearing to face their friends. Thus they readily follow wherever their paramours lead, and thenceforth vibrate for the remainder of their lives between these dens of infamy, the Police Court, and the Penitentiary, till the pauper hears at last comes and carries them to the Potter's Field. The Commissioners of Emigration do all in their power to check this evil; by preventing sailors from taking the girls away; but they are frequently foiled by the girls being rowed ashore in small boats, instead of lading at Castle Garden, according to law. If ship-masters would aid the Commissioners, much of this debauchery might be abated.

THE FIRST FRUIT FROM MALAGA.—The clipper bark Zephyr, Capt. Ernest Laug, from Malaga Sept. 7, and Gibraltar Sept. 8, arrived last evening, after a passage of 28 days, with the first fruit of the season.

SUSPECTED MURDER.—The investigation of the circumstances attending the death of Michael Cornelius, who expired in the New-York Hospital from the effects of a stab received last Sunday night at the hands of some unknown party, did not take place yesterday, owing to the absence of important witnesses. Coroner Jackson will hold an inquest to-day. Capt. Dowling, Officer Jourdon, and other police officers are endeavoring to ascertain who was the perpetrator of the deed. A woman is suspected of having struck the fatal blow.

A PEREGRINATING THIEF.—Jane Lynch is in the habit of obtaining situations as a servant in private families, and, after remaining a few days, decamping with whatever articles of dress or jewelry she can conveniently carry away. Last July Jane was in the employ of Hugh Murray of No. 236 Sixth avenue, where she remained three weeks, and, on leaving, took a black crape shawl, a straw bonnet, and various other articles, valued in all at $120. Since then Jane has lived at several places, from all of which she acquired more or less property. Ollow Du Bois has been on the lookout for Jane for some weeks, and yesterday saw her promenading the street with the identical crape shawl gracefully thrown around her shoulders. He immediately took her into custody, and conveyed her to Jefferson Market, when the owner of the shawl appeared and preferred a complaint against her. Some pawn-tickets were found in her possession, and the property represented by them was recognized by other parties. Justice Quackenbush committed her for examination. Jane is, unfortunately, the type of a class of domestics altogether too numerous in this community.

AN EFFEMINATE YOUNG GENTLEMAN.—A spruce looking young man, who was perambulating the streets in the neighborhood of New Bowery and Chatham square, attracted a great deal of attention, yesterday afternoon, from the suspicion entertained that the coat and pantaloons were not fitted for his own back, and that "he" was a female. He was taken in custody by a policeman, and brought before the Mayor, where he gave his name as—Elizabeth Barry. The girl was sorry for her misconduct, so the Mayor gave her a reprimand and discharged her.

THE ENGLISH CRICKETERS INVITED TO A GAME OF BASE BALL.

To the Editor of The N. Y. Tribune.
SIR: The great International Game at Cricket being over, and victory having crowned the efforts of the English Eleven, it is anxiously desired by many Base-Ball players in this city and Brooklyn, that a game at Base-Ball should be played between nine of the All England and nine of the best players to be found in this neighborhood. As the players of Base Ball are almost exclusively American, such a game as the one proposed might with propriety be called an International Game. Your kind insertion of this, and your expressed approval of the suggestion, will oblige yours,
October 6, 1859. CHAS. H. YELLOTT,
Of the Powhattan Club, Brooklyn.

A BOLD ROBBERY.—William Eddo and George Lawrence, both colored men, entered the scouring and dyeing establishment of C. Joliffe, in Broadway, and, addressing a colored boy who was sweeping out the store, diverted his attention while they secreted several pairs of pantaloons beneath their coats. The young man attempted to detain them, when Eddo struck him a violent blow in the face, and then made off. The boy pursued him through several streets so closely that he was obliged to throw away the pantaloons, and finally to take refuge in a coal cellar, where he was locked in by some person who saw him enter. He was secured by Officer Quinn, and taken before Justice Quackenbush who committed him in default of $3,000 bail. Lawrence has not yet been apprehended.

BRUTAL ASSAULT.—Peter Hogan complains that he was brutally beaten and kicked by Edward Nugent, who assaulted him without provocation. John Broward also preferred a complaint against Nugent, alleging that he had been beaten till he was senseless by the accused. Justice Quackenbush committed the prisoner to answer.

CHOPPED HIS WIFE.—On Wednesday last Hugh Doublne had an altercation with his wife, when his temper got the better of him, and, seizing a hatchet, he struck her several severe blows on the head with it, inflicting dangerous wounds. He was arrested, and Justice Brunan committed him for examination.

[Advertisement]
BRADY'S GALLERY
Has Removed from No. 350 Broadway to No. 615 Broadway, corner of Bleeker-st.
PHOTOGRAPHS, DAGUERRETYPES AND AMBROTYPES.

[Advertisement]
GURNEY'S GALLERY.
No. 707 Broadway.
First block below the New-York Hotel.
PHOTOGRAPHS, DAGUERRETYPES, MINIATURES IN OIL and IVORYTYPES.

[Advertisement]
ENGLISH CRICKETERS.—An imperial photograph of the "All England Eleven" now on exhibition at BRADY'S GALLERY, No. 615 Broadway, corner Bleeker-st.
Also, a fine Stereoscopic View of the Cricket Ground, with Cricketers playing. Copies of the Stereoscope for sale.

[Advertisement]
PARTIAL DEAFNESS AND DISCHARGES FROM THE EAR.

Dr. HARTLEY begs to announce to those of his patients with whom he has been in communication, that he has, in compliance with their special requests, made arrangements to establish his Ear Institution in New-York; and he generously offers to attend all persons suffering from affections of the Ear, without charge, until cured—thereby proving his success unqualified, and protecting the deaf from being swindled by paying self-styled "Ankle extirpators" fees in salivator, and the inflictions of still more serious evils, by permitting the application of dangerous remedies by inexperienced and unskillful hands.

Dr. H. may here state that he has no connection whatever with any person advertising to cure deafness; neither has he given permission for the publication of a certificate, purporting to emanate from him, and cannot, therefore, be responsible for any alarming consequences resulting from rashness and desperation. The loss of memory may not be material to some persons, but the deprivation of one of the most important of the senses ought to be regarded and treated with more than ordinary solicitude.

Deafness, rooted in the head, and all disagreeable discharges from the Ear, speedily and permanently removed, without causing the least pain or inconvenience. A cure in all cases guaranteed where information does not exist.

Thirteen years' close and almost undivided attention to this branch of special practice has enabled him to reduce the treatment to such a degree of success as to find the most confirmed and obstinate cases yield by a steady attention to the means prescribed.

The destruction by fire of the Philadelphia Ear Infirmary, of which Dr. HARTLEY was the head, having released him from his duties in that city he has established permanently his Institution, for the exclusive treatment of Ear Diseases, at No. 191 14th st., opposite the Academy of Music, N. Y.

Consultation and Examination each morning.

[Advertisement]
QUERUS' COD-LIVER OIL JELLY.
The only certain cure for CONSUMPTION, ASTHMA, and all kinds of COUGHS. Is taken without nausea.
OIL, No. 135 4th-av., and sold by all respectable druggists.
PENFOLD, PARKER & MOWEN,
Wholesale Agents, No. 18 Beekman-st.

[Advertisement]
PHRENOLOGY points out the talents, defects, and the particular occupation in which each can best succeed. Resemblances, with charts and full written description of character, given daily at FOWLER & WELLS'S, No. 33 Broadway.

[Advertisement]
A SPECIAL CARD.—Tribune readers will note that HIRSH ANDERSON, No. 99 Bowery, has greatly reduced the prices of English, Medallion, Velvet, Brussels, and Ingleni Carpets, Rugs, Mats, Table and Piano Covers, Drapery, Shades, and OIL CLOTHS, far below any quoted in this city.

[Advertisement]
GEO. SAUNDERS'S METALLIC TABLET RAZOR-STROP.—This infimitable article may be obtained of the sole manufacturers, J. & C. SAUNDERS, No. 7 Amor House, and of the various agents throughout the city.

[Advertisement]
AT EVERDELL'S—WEDDING CARDS, NOTES, &c.—These celebrated Cards, elegantly engraved in the highest style of the art, can only be had in Broadway, corner Duane-st. Established in 1849.